

I have lived in cities with no local Christian radio station, and was thankful to be able to listen to a national station, K-LOVE, in those towns. There is only one local Christian station where I live now and it would be very disappointing to lose K-LOVE to a local non-Christian station. K-LOVE gives people a choice in places where they otherwise wouldn't have one, and I hope they will be able to continue to do so.